Team Member Number: _____

Dear: _____

We are pleased to offer you employment with AG Dominion Blue on the following terms and conditions:

Position: Your principal responsibilities will be that of _____ and as well other assigned duties pertaining to the success of Dominion Blue and the team.
Please see Schedule A – Job Expectations (attached).

Start Date: Your employment will commence on _____ and may be terminated as set out below (the Term”).

Salary: $_____ per month, paid semi-monthly on the 15th of each month and on the last day of the month. Required payroll deductions will be taken at source and remitted directed by Dominion Blue. Pay will be by direct deposit into your bank account.

Probation: You will be subject to a probationary period for the first three (3) months of your employment (the “Probationary Period”). Afterwards and subject to satisfactory work performance, your employment will be confirmed. An extension of the probationary period may result from any leave of absence. During the probationary period your employment may be terminated at any time without cause and without further obligation or liability of any kind, including without limitation, any common law notice or severance.

Vacation: Your entitlement is based on two (2) weeks’ paid vacation per year. In the first year of employment, there is no entitlement to vacation time until 6 months of continuous employment is completed. Vacation entitlement is earned as a percentage of annual salary and accumulates at 4% each pay. Should you leave the employ of Dominion Blue before completing a year with the company you will be entitled to pay in lieu of vacation on a pro rata basis.

Benefits: Dominion Blue is pleased to provide a comprehensive group benefits package (Sun Life) to all permanent full-time employees after six (6) months of continuous service. Benefit Premiums are covered 80% by the company and the remaining 20% paid by the employee. In addition, after three (3) months of full-time employment, Dominion Blue will pay 100% of your BC Medical Insurance premiums; beginning the first of the month following the end of your probationary period.

Evaluation: After three (3) months or ninety (90) days in the position, an evaluation of your performance will be administered by your supervisor. Regular evaluations take place periodically as well as on your anniversary. Evaluations will be based on accomplishments to date as well as the responsibilities defined in the Job Expectations (see Schedule A). Feedback from supervisors and managers will be solicited.

Termination of Employment:

After completion of the Probationary Period, your employment may be terminated without further obligation or liability of Dominion Blue, in accordance with one of the provisions below:

- a. You may resign your employment by providing at least two weeks of written notice;
- b. AG Dominion Blue may terminate your employment at any time without notice of any payment of any kind for cause; or
- c. AG Dominion Blue may terminate your employment at any time without cause and without further obligations or liability of any kind, including without limitation any common law notice or severance, by providing to you only the amount of notice, pay in lieu, or a combination thereof, that is required by the Employment Standards Act.
- d. Upon any termination of your employment, you are required to return to the Company all equipment, apparel, tools, documents, books, etc. including intellectual property belonging to Dominion Blue.
